From Saturday April 1, to Tuesday April 4, 1775.

Moscow, February 27.

LATE on Thursday Night last a Courier arrived here from Marshal Romanzow, with the Ratifications of the Peace, which were signed at the Porte on the 13th of January, O.S.

The Turkish Commissaries are already arrived at Chotzim, in order to settle every Thing with regard to the Stores, &c. previous to the Russian Garrison's marching out.

Nothing could exceed the Splendour and Brilliancy of the Masquerade on Friday Night last. The Empress appeared there in a Grecian Dress, attended by thirteen Noblemen and twelve Ladies of the first Rank, dressed in very magnificent Turkish Habits. Their Imperial Highnesses, the Great Duke and Dutchess, attended by an equal Number, wore the old Spanish Dress.

Orders are given for Prince Repnin's Equipages to be got ready with all possible Expedition.

Cadiz, March 7. The Proclamation for the Flota for Vera Cruz was published here this Morning, to be ready by the first of April in next Year.

Stockholm, March 14. The Queen Dowager had a Court-Day at Fredericksthoff on the 8th Instant. She complained of a violent Cold, which affected her Breast, and obliged her to withdraw from Supper. Her Disorder increased the following Days, and produced an Inflammation of the Lungs; and and her Situation is now thought to be very critical. The King and all the Royal Family have attended her Majesty the whole Day.

Vienna, March 15. The Dean of the Chapter of Saltzbourg received, on Tuesday last, in the Name of his Principal, the publick Investiture of that Archbishoprick from the Hands of the Emperor.

General Giarnini, whose gallant Defence of the City of Schweidnitz in the last War was rewarded by the great Cross of the Military Order of Maria Theresa, died here a few Days ago.

Munich, March 22. The Archduke Maximilian arrived here on Saturday last, by way of Manheim and Augsbourg, from Paris. He was received with every possible Mark of Attention. The Elector accompanied him to his several Country-Seats in the Neighbourhood of Munich; publick Diversions, unusual in the Season of Lent, were exhibited for his Amusement; the Court continued in Gala during the whole Time of his Stay here, and uncommon Magnificence was displayed upon the Occasion.

His Highness chose to have no publick Levee, and declined receiving Visits. He set out early Yesterday Morning for Vienna.

Admiralty-Office, March 31, 1775.

East Country Tar, Tuesday April 4.
Hemp, Friday April 7.
Iron, Tuesday April 11.

East-India House, March 22, 1775.

THE Court of Directors of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East-Indies having, on the 21st of March, 1775, consented to restore Alexander Dalrymple, Esq; to the Company's Service, by Ballot, in which more than Three Parts in Four concurred, agreeable to the Act of Parliament of the 13th of His present Majesty, establishing certain Regulations for the said Company; and the said Consent of the Court of Directors being laid before, and considered at, a General Court of the said Company held this Day; Notice is hereby given, That a General Court of the said Company will be held at their House in Leadenhall Street on Thursday the 6th Day of April next, from Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon until Six in the Evening, to Ballot on the following Question, viz.

"That Alexander Dalrymple, Esq; not having been "unfaithful to the Company, be restored to the "Company's Service," in order to determine, by such Ballot, Whether Three Parts in Four of the Proprietors of the said Company, who shall be present at the said General Court, consent that the said Mr. Dalrymple be restored to the said Company's Service.

London Assurance House, March 29, 1775.

WHereas, at a General Court held this Day, of the Proprietors of the London Assurance Corporation, it was unanimously agreed, That the half yearly Dividend, ending at Lady-Day last, should be after the Rate of Six Shillings per Share, to the Proprietors of both Charters; And whereas, by an Act passed in the seventh Year of His present Majesty, it is enacted, that that no Question for a proposed Increase of Dividend shall be decided otherwise than by Ballot; This is therefore to give Notice, that, in Pursuance of the Direction of the said Act, a General Court will be held at their their House in Birchin-lane, on Thursday the 6th Day of April next, from Nine in the Forenoon till Three in the Afternoon, for the Determination by Ballot of the following Question:

"That it is the Opinion of the said Court, that the "half-yearly Dividend, ending at Lady-day last, "shall be after the Rate of Six Shillings per Share "to the Proprietors in both Charters."
